Introduction:

DR. BAMU was established in Aug. 1958 and called Marathwada University, Aurangabad. It was renamed in 1994 as Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad. The University campus is spread over an area of 720 Acres embraced by lush green mountain ranges, interspersed with gardens and ancient and medieval historical monuments, balancing traditional and modern changes. The University has a strength of 4546 student on the campus and 1,25,000 student from 419 affiliated colleges covering from all over India as well as the world that focus primarily on quality teaching standards and research both for the faculty and students.

Naandi was founded on November 1, 1998 as a Public Charitable Trust. Born out of the idea of creating a professionally run organization managed by eminent business leaders as Trustees. Naandi is partnering with various state governments, corporate houses, international and national development organizations and showcasing large scale successful delivery of public services.

Services such as elementary education with positive discrimination of girls, safe drinking water and sanitation, large scale cooperative irrigated farming in dry land areas, end-to-end sustainable agriculture in tribal areas, skilling and employment for youth, safe motherhood and early childhood development including tackling of malnutrition amongst children, or any other socio-economic issue that is looking for an efficient solution. The Mahindra Pride Class Room is a flagship Corporate Social Responsibility Livelihood program of the Mahindra group and is fully implemented by Naandi Foundation.
