Dear Diksha Kale,

You have received an offer of admission to a graduate program at Carleton University. This admission offer has now been revised, and will nullify the previous offer.

It is your responsibility to review your REVISED offer by viewing the Statement of Standing.

Depending on the revision, you may be required to Accept/Decline your offer of admission and/or funding. If you are required to do so, a decision must be made within 21 days of the date of this letter. If the application status indicates "Decision made by applicant" no further acceptance is required.

If you are required to Accept the Revised Offer then you must read and understand Carleton's Terms and Conditions of Admission and Funding available online at carleton.ca/fgpa/terms. This information is associated with your offer and has important facts about funding eligibility, criteria, the academic integrity policy and other matters.

If you have any concerns or questions, please contact the Department of Law and Legal Studies or the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Affairs (carleton.ca/fgpa).

Yours truly,

Patrice Smith, Dean

Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Affairs
