Brief Report

The Samata Shanti Padyatra marked a significant event commemorating Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Mahaparinirvan Day, marking the death anniversary of the Indian Constitution architect. The padyatra started with paying honour to the statue of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar in campus with an aim to honor Dr. Ambedkar's legacy, promote social equality, and inspired communities to continue his mission of eliminating social discrimination and ensuring justice for all. The event brought together individuals from various backgrounds, fostering unity and solidarity. It emphasized the importance of social equality, raising awareness about ongoing social issues such as caste discrimination and inequality. The padyatra encouraged civic participation, empowering individuals from marginalized groups to assert their rights and take active roles in societal development. It promoted peace and harmony, promoting dialogue and understanding among different community groups.
