

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad (MS)
Reports for Extension/Outreach Activities Carried out in Year 2018

Name of Activity	Central Youth Festival 2018 for All the Affiliated Colleges from Four Districts (Aurangabad, Jalna, Beed, Osmanabad)
Date of Conduction	10-09-2018
Organized By	Students Development Section
Student Participated	2500

Brief Report

The Central Youth Festival 2018, organized by the Students Development Section of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad, was a success, bringing together 2500 students from various departments and affiliated colleges across four districts. The festival aimed to provide a platform for students to showcase their talents and foster cultural exchange and collaboration. The event saw active participation from 2500 students, faculty members, and staff of both the university and affiliated colleges. The Central Youth Festival is a vital platform for youth empowerment, fostering talent, cultural exchange, and leadership among young individuals. It draws participants from diverse backgrounds and provides a platform for personal growth and community building. The festival's objectives include fostering talent and creativity, encouraging cultural exchange, enhancing skills and leadership through workshops, seminars, and competitions, promoting social awareness, and building community and networks.

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad (MS)
Reports for Extension/Outreach Activities Carried out in Year 2018

Glimpses of Central Youth Festival 2018 for aa the affiliated colleges from four districts (Aurangabad, Jalna, Beed, Osmanabad). Enthusiastic participation of students could be recorded.

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad (MS)
Reports for Extension/Outreach Activities Carried out in Year 2018

Key features of the festival included cultural performances, competitions, workshops, exhibitions, and networking events. These events promote confidence building, skill enhancement, cultural awareness, social responsibility, leadership skills, and community building. The festival also encouraged participants to step out of their comfort zones, learn to appreciate and respect different cultures, and take action towards positive change. The inauguration ceremony was attended by dignitaries including the Honourable Vice Chancellor, Registrar, Management Council members, and Director of Dr. The presence of renowned Marathi actors Shri Subodh Bhawe and Ms. Shreya Bugade, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Ashok Tejankar, Dr. Sanjay Kulkarni, and Prof. Dr. Dasu Vaidya added to the grandeur of the event. Various cultural events were organized as part of the festival, including focal dance performances, musical presentations, and dramatic enactments. The festival received widespread acclaim from students, guests, actors, and media outlets, highlighting the need for more such initiatives in the future. The festival served as a testament to the vibrant cultural landscape of the region and the talent present within the university and its affiliated colleges. The Central Youth Festival 2018 received widespread acclaim from students, guests, actors, and media outlets. Attendees expressed their enjoyment and appreciation for the event, highlighting the need for more such initiatives in the future. The festival served as a testament to the vibrant cultural landscape of the region and the talent present within the university and its affiliated colleges. In conclusion, the Central Youth Festival 2018 organized by the Students Development Section of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad, was a resounding success. The event provided a platform for students to showcase their talents and foster cultural exchange. The dedication of the organizing committee, volunteers, faculty members, and staff was instrumental in making the event a memorable experience for all participants. Moving forward, it is essential to continue organizing such events to nurture and promote the diverse talents of the student community.

