The Inaugural glimpses of Bicycle Rally to commemorate Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav organized NSS, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad

The Director of the NSS provided an overview of the rally's objectives and underscored the significance of community participation in such national initiatives. Key points from the Vice Chancellor's speech included the importance of unity in achieving national goals, national pride, and youth participation. The rally witnessed an overwhelming response from the local community, including students, university staff, political leaders, and various community representatives. The event's inclusive nature fostered a strong sense of unity and camaraderie among participants. The rally covered a significant distance, starting from the university campus and passing through key areas of Aurangabad, symbolizing the journey towards national unity and collective progress. The rally brought a wave of enthusiasm among local residents, who appreciated the effort to promote national unity and environmental consciousness through a non-polluting mode of transport. The event was seen as a celebration of unity and brotherhood, embodying the true spirit of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Feedback from participants included praise from local residents for fostering a sense of community and national pride, expressions of responsibility towards the nation and the environment, and recognition from political leaders for the university's efforts in organizing a meaningful event aligned with the broader goals of national unity. In conclusion, the bicycle rally was a resounding success, showcasing the collective spirit of the university and the local community. Future plans include regular community engagement and sustainability initiatives, emphasizing eco-friendly activities that contribute to community well-being and environmental sustainability.
