The event was inaugurated by dignitaries, including the District Collector of Osmanabad, Marathwada Graduate MLA Satish Chavan, Vikram Kale Marathwada Teachers MLA, MLA Omaraga, MLA Tulajapur, and MP Osmanabad. The event witnessed active participation from various stakeholders, including political leaders, faculty members, and students from across the district. A job fair was organized as part of the employment camp, providing a platform for job seekers to explore employment opportunities offered by participating companies. Dr. Anil Jadhav, the coordinator of the National Career Service, Government of India, conducted guidance sessions for students, emphasizing the importance of skill development and education in the job selection process. Mr. Sachin Basaiyya and Shitalnath Ekhande served as coordinators for the interview process, while seven committees were constituted to oversee various aspects of the event. In conclusion, the Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyay Employment Camp served as a commendable initiative to address unemployment challenges by bridging the gap between job seekers and employers. The collaboration between educational institutions, government bodies, and industry stakeholders underscores a collective effort towards fostering employment opportunities and economic growth. This is going to be a true boon for youth of the region.
