DR. BABASAHEB AMBEDKAR MARATHWADA UNIVERSITY,

AURANGABAD,

Guidelines regarding the Service Courses

1. The student has to complete at least one service course of Four Credits in either Semester-III or Semester-IV and at a time student will be allowed to appear for only one service course.
2. Students from University Departments will be permitted to take the admission to any service course in any University Department of main University Campus or the Sub-Centre Campus as the case may be.
3. The service courses offered by different departments are available on the University website.
4. Head of the Department will sign only one application form for admission to the service course of his regular P.G. student for the admission of the service course,
5. The student can download and apply on application form along-with the registration fee Rs.100/- to the concerned professor in-charge of any department in which he intends to complete the service course. The concerned professor will make the merit list of the students applied on the basis of the percentage of total marks obtained at the graduation and Head of the Department will declare the list of admitted students as per quota decided in the department in accordance with the rules of C.B.C.S.
6. Professor in-charge will provide the attested photocopy with remark to the student not admitted to his service course.
7. Students not selected for the service course will apply with the photocopy from Professor in-charge where he has not been selected, to any other course where he desires and the seats are vacant and will be admitted on first cum basis.
8. The original application form of such students will then be transferred through the head of the Department to the concerned head.
9. The concerned Professor in-charge of the service course will execute the required work of respective course as per instructions from the head of the Department.

10. The uniform schedule of the time table for the service courses will be from 10.15 a.m. to 11.15 a.m. from Wednesday to Saturday of every week and all activities regarding the service courses should be restricted in this period to avoid the overlapping. Where the service courses are Theory cum Practicals, additional periods if required may be scheduled as per the availability of the students. A fifteen minute gap be given to students after the service course to reach to their concerned departments.

11. The midterm examinations should be conducted as per academic calendar at regular lectures and semester end examinations of all service courses should be conducted as per the uniform schedule and pattern as provided by the University; where service course is Theory cum Practical, the pattern of examination be deviated as per decision in the D.C.

12. The final result of midterm and semester end examinations of the students should be sent to the head of the department of the student where he is doing P.G. by Professor in-charge of service course through his head of the Department.
