

ENG: SC 131 – Communication in English

Course Description

The course aims to provide participants with the language skills and knowledge required to communicate effectively in English in various speech events.

Objectives

- To speak with confidence and competence in moderate-level oral interactions
- To understand most conversation on familiar topics in social and academic situations
- To speak in public with accuracy, fluency and confidence
- To participate in group discussions

Unit I: Communication - Theory, definitions, scope and objectives, Elements of Communication

Unit II: Types of Communication, Importance of Communication, principles of communication

Unit III: Listening Skills, Speaking Skills, Reading Skills and Writing Skills

Unit IV: Personality development, voice culture, Emotional Intelligence

Unit V: Group Discussion, Meetings, Interviews

Unit VI: How to make effective presentation, Public Speech

References: