

Music: A Personal Experience

A one day Seminar in English language on the topic, 'Music: A Personal Experience', was organised dated on 14th Oct 2017. Students actively participated and shared their experience of Music in English. This was the beautiful experiment to express the views and emotions of students regarding Music and the principles of life.